

CAMP GESHER PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Camp Gesher welcomes your Camper to our program! This Parent Code of Conduct is intended to remind parents/guardians of the behavioural standards expected of them while their Camper attends our program and during any visitations to Camp Gesher. Failure to abide by the Parent Code of Conduct may result in your camper being dismissed from the program at your expense. In these cases, no refund will be provided. Parents/Guardians:

STANDARDS FOR CONDUCT

Prior to the Camper attending Camp Gesher

- Must review the Terms and Conditions <https://www.campgesher.com/registration-policies>
- Must review the Camper Code of Conduct [Camper Code of Conduct] with your Camper and sign the document
- Must ensure that the Camper does not bring any electronic communication or video game devices to Camp Gesher
- Must ensure that the Camper does not bring any weapons, recreational or street drugs, tobacco, vape products, alcohol, or other prohibited items (as outlined in the Camper Code of Conduct)
- Must disclose relevant behavioural and/or medical information about the Camper to Camp Gesher

While the Camper is attending Camp Gesher

- Must not attempt to contact the Camper (except via designated communication media such as letter mail, email to the designated camper email, or phone calls to the Camp office)
- In the case of emergency, must contact Camp Gesher who will connect with the Camper
- Must not visit the Camper (unless during a designated visitation day/time or without the express permission of the Camp Director)
- Must treat Camp Gesher staff with respect.
- Must refrain from persistently questioning staff about the status or activities of their Camper.

During Visitation

- Must understand that not all programs offer visitation opportunities
- Must respect the decisions of all Camp Gesher staff members
- Must act appropriately toward the Camper, other Campers, and staff members by not engaging in prohibited behaviour, such as discrimination or harassment, (as outlined in the Camper Code of Conduct)
- Must not use Camp Gesher equipment or participate in Camp Gesher activities unless explicitly permitted to do so by Camp Gesher staff members and in accordance with all Camp Gesher safety rules and instructions

This form will be digitally signed in the Camp Gesher registration software.
